

Avondsluiking — Finding Art — 20 mei 2007 Jona

Zornik - We are lost.

I wanna climb up in the sky with you To seeze the stars and put them on your head I wanna take you down where the sun begins a journey on the clouds once again

I wonder if I will ever see your face again and the rest of my opinion is of no importance guess I have made a choise for us
we are lost
in this world
we are lost
in this time
we are lost
we decide
we are lost

we are lost, lost in our own world It doesn't even matter if you like it or not
we are lost, lost in our own world
It doesn't even matter if you're happy or not
We are lost, lost in are own world
It doesn't even matter if you like it or not
We are lost, lost in our own world
It doesn't even matter if you're happy or not